

The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Moncton and the Town of Sackville present a FREE webinar regarding

What Comes Next? Leading Your Business Through the Volatility of the next 12 months

The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Moncton and the Town of Sackville invite you to a special webinar to be held specifically for Sackville area businesses. Matt Symes, CEO and co-founder of Symplicity Designs, will lead you through a COVID-19 business recovery and resilience program. Businesses everywhere are coping with the economic impact of the pandemic. Join us for this virtual event which will give you practical guidance and tips on how to navigate today's challenging economic reality, what to do – and what not to do – to position your business for recovery and growth.
