Sackville
NEW BRUNSWICK

Welcome

Mayor Shawn Mesheau Welcomes You

Welcome to Sackville and to the greater Tantramar area where we take pride in our history and natural beauty. Rural friendliness and charm enhanced by first class amenities. We are situated at the tip of the Bay of Fundy and would be happy to help you make this your base camp when exploring our region and all it has to offer. Sackville is the entry point to the Fundy Coastal Drive which leads you to one of New Brunswick's gems, the Fundy Trail.

We hope you enjoy your visit to Sackville, please come back again and be sure to tell everyone about all there is to see and do here in the Center of the Maritimes.

SHAWN MESHEAU
DEPUTY MAYOR

President's Welcome

Mount Allison is one of the things that makes Sackville special — and Sackville is one of the reasons Mount Allison stands out in the crowd.

This vibrant and engaging community is a great place to call home — whether for a day, a year, or a lifetime. The Town and the University offer up an ever-changing array of cultural, sporting, and community activities to spark your creativity, kindle your curiosity, and captivate your imagination. There's so much to choose from, you'll wish you could stay longer!

Welcome, bienvenue, pjila'si — we look forward to seeing you around.

DR. JEAN-PAUL BOUDREAU
PRESIDENT AND VICE-CHANCELLOR
MOUNT ALLISON UNIVERSITY

Mount Allison University is ranked one of the top universities in Canada by Maclean's magazine. With degrees in Arts, Science, Commerce, Fine Arts, and Music, the University provides a flexible liberal arts and sciences education that prepares students for any career path. Mount Allison prides itself on providing a high-quality academic experience, combined with a variety of hands-on learning opportunities in a close-knit community. Students come from more than 50 countries around the world to make up a diverse, creative, and talented student body of approximately 2,300 students.

The University has one of the most beautiful and well-maintained campuses in the country. Open Houses are held twice a year (October and February) and guided campus tours are available throughout the year (mta.ca/visit). Visitors are also welcome to experience Mount Allison on their own — walking across the entire residential campus takes approximately 10 minutes. For a map of campus, visit mta.ca/map.

Conference facilities are available for corporate training, national and regional conferences, retreats, youth groups, and meetings. The University provides access to teaching, classroom, and meeting spaces for groups of all sizes from May until September, as well as full-service dining and catering services and an ensuite-style residence with hotel amenities. For bookings, call 506-364-2247 or e-mail reservations@mta.ca.

Mount Allison also offers a host of summer camps for kids of all ages. With everything from day camps to overnight experiences and athletics to academics, there is a camp for everyone. For information on the summer programs, visit mta.ca/summer.

*Take comfort that peace always wins.
That flowers unfailingly bloom.
Keep in mind that others love you.
Know that birds here sing happier when you pass by.
Realize the warning signs of happiness,
soft wind in trees,
snow-glisten in sun and crunch-underfoot in cold,
kindness and the cackling laughter of small children.
For you cannot hear, see or feel these things clearly
if you're troubled.
Rejoice that no one is quite like you,
and that is why you are loved.
Gather your loved ones to your heart and hearth
and know that though we are each different we are each other.*
